

Zygotepress Residency Program

Zygotepress is currently soliciting applications for two separate, two-week residencies in the Summer and Winter of 2012. Qualified residents will be established printmakers from the US and abroad, seeking to work on a special project in Zygotepress's facilities in Cleveland, Ohio. The recipient will receive: two-week stay in the ZPASS loft (live-work accommodations), a stipend of $200, as well as full access to the print shop during their two-week residency. In exchange, Zygotepress requires that resident's give a lecture or informal demonstration during their residency, and a work made at Zygotepress be donated to our archive. Travel costs are not included in the residency award.

Zygotepress Intern SWAP

An additional component of the ZPASS will be the Intern Residency Award. This program will be offered once a year in the summer for a period of two weeks. Zygotepress currently offers internships to college students from around the country who wish to learn more about printmaking and/or non-profits arts administration. Award recipients will receive: a two-week stay in the ZPASS loft (live-work accommodations), a stipend of $100, as well as full access to the print shop during their residency, when not involved with intern activities. In exchange, Interns will commit to 15 service hours per week for their exchange.

Through the Residency Award, Interns will have the opportunity to work closely with visiting artists, contract printers and work with Zygotepress staff on special projects during their stay. In addition, they will learn the administrative skills needed to work in non-profit administration while being provided with time to create their own work. This valuable skill is often overlooked in Visual Arts Degree programs and it often takes artists many years to learn how to balance the skills of making a living while creating their artwork.

ZPASS Description

The live-work apartment is located in Zygotepress's E.30th Street building in the heart of Cleveland's burgeoning ArtsQuarter. Considered to be the epicenter of Cleveland's Asia Town, this mid-town location has access to dining, shopping, parking and public transit. Just a mile from the heart of downtown Cleveland and well-placed near the highway, Zygotepress Press is an ideal location for a resident artist to participate in the local community while living in a vibrant urban setting. Zygotepress Press staff and Board will aid artists in finding resources if they are not familiar with the area.

The ZPASS space is located on the second floor of Zygotepress's building and has already been designated a live-work space. The two-bedroom studio is a heated 1,500 square feet with ample work space, a complete kitchen area with a stove, refrigerator and microwave.
